LEGISLATION REGARDING INDIA AND PAKISTAN

HON. BENJAMIN A. GILMAN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 2, 1999

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, today I am introducing H. Res. 84, legislation recognizing the recent achievements of the Republic of India and the Islamic Republic of Pakistan in fostering peaceful relations between the two nations.

This past week, Prime Minister Atal Behari Vajpayee of India courageously crossed the long tense Punjabi border to visit his Pakistani host and counterpart, Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif. This visit, the first by an Indian premier to Pakistan in ten years, was only the third such visit since Partition in 1947. Prime Minister Vajpayee refused to cancel his trip despite a recent horrific and despicable terrorist attack in Jammu killing 20 civilians.

During their summit, the two leaders signed the "Lahore Declaration," which commits India and Pakistan to reaching universal nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation and reaffirms their commitment not to conduct future nuclear tests. In this agreement, the parties have also agreed to engage in bilateral consultations on security, disarmament, and non-proliferation issues and have issued a condemnation of terrorism.

Since Partition, India and Pakistan, together the home of more than one-fifth of the world's population, have fought three wars against each other. The conflict in Kashmir has cost 30,000 to 50,000 civilian lives.

H. Res. 84 praises this positive step taken by the leadership of India and Pakistan in resolving the differences of these two neighboring countries, sharing so much history and culture, through diplomacy and celebrates this small victory for dialogue. Accordingly, I urge my colleagues to support H. Res. 84. I request the full text of H. Res. 84, be printed in the RECORD at this point.

H. RES.—

Whereas on February 22, 1999, the Prime Minister of India and the Prime Minister of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan signed the "Lahore Declaration" to develop and secure a durable peace and to develop harmonious relations and friendly cooperation between the two nations;

Whereas the Lahore Declaration states and affirms the commitment of the Republic of India and the Islamic Republic of Pakistan to the objective of universal nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation;

Whereas the Republic of India and the Islamic Republic of Pakistan have reaffirmed their commitment to continue to abide by their respective unilateral moratorium on conducting further nuclear test explosions;

Whereas the Republic of India and the Islamic Republic of Pakistan have agreed to take immediate steps to reduce the risk of accidental or unauthorized use of nuclear weapons;

Whereas the Republic of India and the Islamic Republic of Pakistan have agreed to commence bilateral consultations on security, disarmament and non-proliferation issues within the context of negotiations on these issues in multilateral form; and

Whereas the Republic of India and the Islamic Republic of Pakistan have reaffirmed

their condemnation of terrorism in all its forms and manifestations and their determination to combat this menace: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

(1) recognizes the significance and importance of the Lahore Declaration as a step toward durable peace and the development of harmonious relations and friendly cooperation between the Republic of India and the Islamic Republic of Pakistan; and

(2) supports the commitment of the Republic of India and the Islamic Republic of Pakistan to universal nuclear disarmament, non-proliferation, and peaceful regional relations.

TRIBUTE TO FORMER MICHIGAN
STATE REPRESENTATIVE BEV-ERLEY A. BODEM

HON. BART STUPAK

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 2, 1999

Mr. STUPAK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to pay tribute today to Beverly Bodem, a former representative to the Michigan House of Representatives from the 106th Representative District, which is comprised of four counties in my congressional district.

First elected to the House in 1990, Bev Bodem has just concluded her service in that body because of the Michigan term limits law. This law was enacted at the will of the voters of Michigan, but I have to confess that in this case I believe the law has turned a hard-working and well-respected public servant out of office.

Bev Bodem was known especially for her constituent service and for paying attention to the people in her northern Michigan district. These efforts cut across party lines, and Bev was willing to work arm and arm with me on issues that affected the people she was elected to serve.

One of the issues which she successfully tackled was the problem faced by resort operators and other tourism-based industries in her district, a district which straddles the northern tip of Lower Michigan to touch both Lake Michigan and Lake Huron. Because the state's school year began before Labor Day, resorts, restaurants and other tourism businesses lost much of the summer help. Students themselves had to leave good summer jobs before the official end of the tourist season. Bev worked hard to adjust the school year to begin after Labor Day, benefitting employers, employees, and the many guests and visitors to our beautiful state.

Bev Bodem has been involved in her district and her community in many ways outside of her elected office. Such organizations as the Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Alpena, the Thunder Bay Arts Council, the Alpena Lions Club, the Alpena General Hospital Auxiliary and the League of Women Voters have benefited from her willingness to serve and work for the betterment of her community.

Bev, her husband Dennis and daughter Jennifer, a school teacher, always presented a living picture of a warm, friendly and proud family of public service to all northern Michigan.

Bev always demonstrated the "best" of politics by working hard for all the people of her district, and she did so with a warm, friendly smile on her face. It was obvious she enjoyed her legislative career, and her constituents, enjoyed having her as their representative.

The people of northern Michigan will miss Bev Bodem as the state representative, and I will miss working with her.

IN SUPPORT OF H.R. 628

HON. JAMES A. TRAFICANT, JR.

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 2, 1999

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of legislation I introduced on February 8, 1999, which would authorize the deployment of U.S. troops to assist law enforcement in patrolling U.S. borders. I urge all Members to cosponsor this important piece of legislation.

Our current program to stop drugs from coming into America is a joke. Eighty percent of the cocaine and heroin smuggled into America is transited across the U.S.-Mexico border. We are losing the war on drugs. If hundreds of thousands of U.S. soldiers can be sent all over the world to protect other countries, certainly a few thousand can be redeployed here in the U.S. to help protect America from the scourge of drugs.

My bill, H.R. 628, authorizes the Department of Defense to assign U.S. troops to assist federal law enforcement in monitoring and patrolling U.S. borders, and inspecting cargo, vehicles and aircraft at points of entry into the U.S. Under the bill such assistance could be provided only at the express request of the U.S. Attorney General or Secretary of the Treasury. The bill also mandates special law enforcement training for troops deployed to border areas, requires all U.S. troops patrolling the border to be accompanied by federal law enforcement agents, bars soldiers from making arrests, and requires the federal government to notify state and local government officials of any deployment of U.S. troops. Last year the House overwhelmingly approved a similar provision that I sponsored as an amendment to the FY 1999 DoD bill. The amendment, however, was dropped during a House-Senate conference.

Make no mistake about it, the Border Patrol, INS and Customs Service desperately need the help our military could provide. For example, only three out of every 100 trucks coming into the U.S. from Mexico are inspected. In addition, recent news reports reveal that the INS is considering releasing thousands of dangerous illegal aliens currently being held in detention centers because of funding and manpower shortages. And finally, in just the last year, federal agents in one border sector alone seized 132 tons of marijuana and more than 3 tons of cocaine worth a total of $408 million.

I recently cosigned a letter with a number of my colleagues imploring the President to fill a backlog of vacant Border Patrol positions. But clearly this is not enough. By the time those positions are filled with qualified candidates, who knows how many more illegal drugs will hit our streets and reach our children?

Mr. Speaker, it's time to put a stranglehold on our borders once and for all. I urge all members to cosponsor H.R. 628.

TRIBUTE TO THE LATE NAVY LT.
COMMANDER KURT BARICH

HON. HEATHER WILSON

OF NEW MEXICO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 2, 1999

Mrs. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I wish to bring to your attention the service to our country of Navy Lt. Commander Kurt Barich. Lt. Commander Barich recently died in service to our country in an aircraft accident aboard the aircraft carrier U.S.S. Enterprise.

Kurt Barich moved to Albuquerque, NM, with his family in 1970, going to school at Sandia High School and the University of New Mexico before joining the Navy. Kurt was a member of the squadron VAQ-130, the "Zappers," based at Naval Air Station Whidbey Island, WA.

Lt. Commander Kurt Barich flew 39 combat missions in the Gulf War in A-6 Intruder ground attack jets off the carrier U.S.S. Kennedy. After the Navy retired the A-6, Kurt Barich began flying the Prowler, an electronic warfare variant designed to jam enemy radar and destroy radar sights. He served his country honorably and with distinction receiving numerous medals and decorations in his 13 years in the Navy, including four Air Medals, three Navy Commendations and four Navy Achievement Medals.

Kurt Barich was aboard the U.S.S. Enterprise on his last mission as it sailed for Norfolk, VA, and then on to the Middle East to protect vital American interests. Join me today as we honor Lt. Commander Kurt Barich for his service to our country. We will only remain a free country as long as there are men and women ready to protect our freedoms. Let us also send our thanks and our sympathies to his family for their support for his service in the Navy.

TRIBUTE TO DALE JACOBS

HON. BRAD SHERMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 2, 1999

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Dale Jacobs in celebration of his dedication to community service and volunteering.

As Dale is being honored this week by the Tarzana Chamber of Commerce, it seems an appropriate time to acknowledge his distinguished career and extraordinary contributions to the development of our community and our country.

Since becoming a resident of the Valley, over 20 years ago, Dale has continually strived to make his home and community a better place to live. He sacrifices his personal time, energy, and money so that others may benefit. At one point he was involved with 22 local organizations simultaneously.

His children Joel and Angela have been a tremendous inspiration to him giving him the desire to ensure that their lives, and the lives of other children, can be as fulfilling as possible. He is an active member of A.Y.S.O. as a Division Manager, Treasurer, coach, and even referee. In addition, he has also taken an active role in their education, having served as past President of the Portola Middle School Booster Club, Vice-President of the Wilbur Avenue Elementary School Booster Club, President of the Reseda High School PTSA, and Treasurer of Parents for Public Schools.

Dale has also played an active role in the business community. A certified public accountant, Dale has been a partner with Sandler, Powell, Jacobs & Berlin since 1988. A member of the Tarzana Chamber for many years Dale has been serving as their President since 1997 where he has focused on expanding membership, encouraging activism, and serving the community. We are fortunate that he is being reinstalled as President of the Tarzana chamber for yet another year.

When he does have free time Dale enjoys Civil War Reenacting with his wife Bobbe, of 27 years, and the rest of his family. He is Treasurer of the Fort Tejon Historical Association and spent last summer participating in a reenactment of the Battle of Gettysburg at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.

Mohandas Gandhi once said that "You find yourself by losing yourself in service to your fellow man, your God and country." I cannot think of a more fitting tribute to Dale. Thanks to his leadership, courage, and dedication, our community is an ideal place to raise a family, start a business, or become involved in community activities.

Mr. Speaker, distinguished colleagues, please join me in honoring Dale Jacobs for all of his contributions to our community.

A TRIBUTE TO VAHAN TEKEYAN
AND TO THE TEKEYAN CULTURAL ASSOCIATION

HON. GEORGE RADANOVICH

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 2, 1999

Mr. RADANOVICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Vahan Tekeyan on the 120th anniversary of his birth and to the Tekeyan Cultural Association.

Vahan Tekeyan was born in Constantinople, Turkey in 1878. He gained prominence as one of the most celebrated poets in Armenian history. Tekeyan is credited with contributing to saving the Armenian language through his vast writings. It is said that he gave poetry a melody all its own. Tekeyan is recognized both as a poet of the people and as a poet's poet. He courageously met and conquered numerous challenges during his lifetime. Vahan Tekeyan died in Cairo, Egypt at the age of 67.

The Tekeyan Cultural Association was founded in Beirut, Lebanon in 1947 by Professor Parounag Thomasian, Kersan Aharonian and Harchia Setrakian, Esq. The association is headquartered in Watertown, MA and has chapters throughout the United States as well as in Armenia, Canada, France, Egypt, Argentina, Belgium and Greece. During the Armenian genocide of 1915-1923, the Fresno Chapter of the Tekeyan Cultural Association significantly contributed to the welfare and support of orphans.

Mr. Speaker, it is with great honor that I pay tribute to Vahan Tekeyan on the 120th anniversary of his birth and to the Tekeyan Cultural Association Fresno Chapter. Their dedication to preserving Armenian heritage and their significant support of numerous noble causes is to be commended. I invite my colleagues to join me in this recognition.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE ALLEN
L. LOWE

HON. BART STUPAK

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 2, 1999

Mr. STUPAK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to pay tribute today to Allen Lowe, a former representative to the Michigan House of Representatives from the 105th Representative District, which includes five counties in my congressional district.

First elected to the House in 1992, Allen Lowe has just concluded his service in that body because of the Michigan term limits law. This law was enacted at the will of the voters of Michigan, but I have to confess that in this case I believe the law has turned out of office a dedicated public servant who was deeply concerned about the welfare of his constituents.

I know that Allen traveled extensively throughout his district, because I pride myself on returning to my district each week to participate in community events, and many times I found Allen attending the same events.

Allen Lowe was a legislator with deep convictions, and although I did not always agree with his position on issues, I have always had the greatest respect for the way in which he presented and defended these convictions. Like myself, Allen was a graduate of Cooley Law School. Like myself, he was a pro-life legislator. And like myself, he was not afraid to challenge Michigan's governor on issues that he believed would be detrimental to his northern Michigan constituents, despite that fact that Allen and the governor were members of the same political party.

Allen brought to his job a broad involvement in community issues. He has been a teacher and school administrator, and he involved himself in activities and organizations that served his Michigan district, including the Michigan Farm Bureau, the Camp Grayling Conservation Club, and the Friends of Hartwick Pines.

I will miss doing parades with him, debating issues, and, as always, working with him on issues of importance to his state representative district.

I believe the people of the 105th Representative District were well-served by Allen Lowe.
